

SECTION XI--FEDERAL GRANTS

CASH MANAGEMENT:

Some federal programs receive funds in advance from the grantor agency. Funds should be drawn only in amounts necessary to meet immediate needs or to cover disbursements already made. Cash management would not apply to federal programs which are on a reimbursement basis. Administrative controls and accounting controls should be established to control cash flow of federal funds.